

Isaiah 43:25 I, even I, am he who blots out your transgressions, for my own sake, and remember your sins no more.

This verse is in the context of a courtroom. God has examined their sins and shortcomings. As a result of what God says there is a shift from accusations to redemption.

God doesn't just forgive but He does not hold our sin against us. We should always remember and claim and trust. Hebrews 8:12 tells us "For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more" Wow! Amazing! Because in this world people don't forget and won't let you forget! Do we do that? If God forgives, can't I?

The Lord will do this if we come to Him with an open, sincere heart. Don't we all want a clean slate. What a father He is when He tells us who we are in Him! Then why do we hold on to the past? John 3:17 reminds us He didn't come here to condemn but to save.

But there is one here who does want to condemn, he is the liar and the deceiver. We must trust God's word and promises, not our feelings.

Make it a point to understand God's heart. The compassionate God is slow to anger, abounding in love, and faithful.
