

He must remain in heaven until the time comes for God to restore everything, as he promised long ago through his holy prophets.

"OVERALL PROPHECY REVIEW"

1. What was interesting to you from last week's lesson?

INTRODUCTION: We have studied considerable prophecy about Israel in Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, and Zechariah. The other prophets had a similar message. This lesson will focus on an overall review of their message to Israel. Read the selected Scriptures at your own pace this week and summarize the main thoughts. (Allow extra time.)

2. Isaiah 2:1-4                      What will the Lord do in the last days?
3. Isaiah 11:1-12                  a. What Spirit would the root of Jesse possess in vs. 2-3?
b. What is prophesied for the remnant in vs. 11-12?
4. Isaiah 24:1-23                  a. Summarize the main concept of this chapter.
b. Where will the Lord reign?
5. Isaiah 25:6-9                   a. Briefly, what will the Lord do?
b. What is said in Revelation 21:3-4?
6. Isaiah 42:1-9                    What is stated as the servant's mission?
7. Isaiah 43:1-13                   What is Israel's relationship to God in these verses?
8. Isaiah 45:22-25                  How do these verses compare with Philippians 2:9-11?
9. Isaiah 49:1-6                    How far will God's salvation reach?
10. Isaiah 62:1-12                  What is said about Jerusalem?
11. Isaiah 65:8-25                  a. What is said about God's servants in vs. 8-16?
b. Briefly describe the scene in vs. 17-25.
12. Isaiah 66:15-24                  How is the coming of the Lord portrayed in these verses?
13. Jeremiah 31:31-37              When would the nation of Israel cease?

29. What did Peter tell us in 2 Peter 1:19-21?
30. What do you see as the common theme of all this prophecy?
31. Paul said in 1 Corinthians 13:12 that now we see but a poor reflection. We will never fully understand prophecy until it is fulfilled and we can look back on it as we do with Christ's first coming. Let us pray for the coming of our King and Savior, Jesus Christ, who brings salvation to all who believe in His name. Are you ready to meet Him face to face?
32. Review your personal goals for this year's Bible study as you defined them in Lesson 1. How did you do?
